We celebrate Emmanuel's Coming, Advent's Life, during the season of Advent and into Christmas and the days that follow, Christmastide. But, as shared today God With Us has deep, deep implications — implications far beyond a festive holiday (or even holy-day) celebration.

1 → What are all the ways you can imagine that this verse should now tell the story of your life?

• Galatians 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

2 → What are all the ways the current story of your life doesn't reflect this verse?

3 → What are all the ways you can imagine that this verse should now tell the story of your life?

• 2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

4 → What are all the ways the current story of your life doesn't reflect this verse?

5 → What are all the ways you can imagine that this verse should now tell the story of your life?

• Revelation 21:5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. (KJV)

6 → What are all the ways the current story of your life doesn't reflect this verse?
